

LEXUS GS 450h TIMELINE

1993	January	The Lexus GS300 saloon is unveiled at the Detroit Motor Show. Sales begin in America and Europe later in the year.
2005	April	The all-new GS range is launched in Europe, the first production Lexus to be styled according to the company's new L-finesse design principles.
2006	May	The Lexus GS 450h is launched, the world's first hybrid-power car to feature a front-engine and rear-wheel drive powertrain.
2009	Dec	The UK range is rationalised into two equipment grades, SE and SE-L for the 2010 model year. A new HDD navigation system is introduced.
2011	August	The fourth generation GS makes its at the Pebble Beach Concours d'Elegance in California
2012	February	UK order books open for the new GS 450h